

I strongly urge the commission not to change the current broadcast ownership rules. The airwaves are a public resource that should be managed for the benefit of the public. Allowing further consolidation would diminish the quality of broadcasting to serve a narrow private interest.